

Dec. 1, 1891

The largest mail ever received at the Heber Post Office came in last night. It consisted of four well filled canvas sacks and a large leather pouch.